FIRE STARTS IN A PILE OF TRASH

Blaze Causes Loss Estimated at $2,000 at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church this Morning

DISCOVERED BY SMALL BOYS

Fire Department Keeps Damage to Minimum by Not Throwing Water on the First Floor

Fire starting from a pile of trash in the basement of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, threatened to destroy the edifice at 10:40 this morning, and damage estimated at about $2,000 resulting before the flames could be checked.

Crating and piles of loose wood, located in the basement at about the middle of the large church building corner of Fifth and Morgan streets, is believed to have been the seat of the blaze, and the flooring underneath the main church auditorium was ablaze and burning like a roaring furnace.

The church was so badly damaged that it will be impossible to hold services Sunday, the Rev. H. W. Hargett, the pastor, announced this afternoon.

The fire had a big start before it was discovered, and smoke was pouring forth from every window and from around every door, before it was discovered. Small boys were said to have noticed the smoke and ran into the building before spreading the alarm.

The fire department was notified by Mrs. C. L. McKee, living across the street from the church, and later an alarm was turned in from box 42. Ben Sparks, a city mail carrier, was passing the church and attempted to follow the boys in the building, thinking that they would probably be suffocated, but they made their exit from another door. All three divisions of the department made a quick run, but it was thirty minutes before the fire was under control. Firemen were greatly handicapped on account of the dense smoke which filled the entire building.

Four lines of hose were directed through the basement windows, and two lines were laid from the pumper at a fire hydrant. Water was not thrown in the church, which kept the damage down to a minimum.

The fire burned through the church floor in one small place, and only a small portion of the floor covering was damaged by water. It may take several days in order to determine whether the smoke did damage to the interior.

It was first believed that the coal

MINSTREL FROLIC TO BE HIT OF THE SEASON

Progress That is Being Made With Kiwanis Show Due to Interest of Everyone in Cast

75 PEOPLE WILL HAVE PARTS

According to all reports circulating around the city, The Black and White Minstrel Frolic, which is to be given by the Kiwanis Club on Wednesday and Thursday nights, Nov. 23 and 24th at the Graham Annex under the direction of the John B. Rogers Co., will be the one big sensational hit of the season.

Most credit to the progress of the minstrel is due to the interest everyone in the cast is displaying and more especially to the young girls of this city who are devoting practically all their spare time to the preparation in order that it may be put over in the best of style.

There are 75 people in the cast, including 25 pretty snappy, fantastic girls who sing and dance with all the array of professional talent. The beautiful and eccentric costumes, the elegant and artistic scenery lends much to the splendor of the Black and White Review.

The tickets for this show are now for sale in most of the business houses.

Trials Of Prater And Johnson Await Hearing Of Gang

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17.—Trials of Robert Prater and Cecil Johnson in criminal court, which were set for Saturday morning, were indefinitely postponed by Judge J. A. Collins. The two were indicted on charge of receiving stolen goods in connection with the robberies of the Alert State bank at Allet, Ind. It is supposed to have been one of the "jobs" done by Sonny Dunn's gang.

Prater and Johnson will probably face trial with the other members of the gang who have been captured recently in Decatur county circuit court, stated Judge Collins.

SHIP BILL TO COME UNDER SPECIAL RULE

House Leaders Decide To Throw Administration Measure Open To Amendments On Floor

EXPECT FINAL VOTE BY NOV. 20

Washington, Nov. 17.—The administration, Nov. 17.—The administration taken up in the house next week under a special rule which will throw the measure open to all amendments on the floor, republican leaders announced today, when they opened their drive to force the bill through. At a conference between Speaker Gillett, Majority Leader Mondell, Chairman Campbell of the rules committee, and members of the republican steering committee, it was decided not to apply the gag rule because of apparent opposition to it among republicans as well as democrats.

This was done despite the fact that republican leaders frankly believed the course to be followed will open the way to a flood of nullifying amendments which will so change the bill that the aims of the administration will be defeated.

Representative Campbell announced the rules for a subsidy bill would be submitted to the house next Wednesday and that general debate would start on Thursday and run through Saturday. The first three days of the following week, he said, would be devoted to discussion of amendments. He predicted that the plan would bring a final vote on the bill November 20.

WORK OF OBTAINING MINE WAR JURY SLOW

Four Bailiffs Fliver Over Muddy Roads Of Williams County Seeking "Good Honest Men"

FIRST VENIRE EXHAUSTED

(By United Press)

Marion, Ill., Nov. 17.—Four bailiffs flivvered over the muddy roads of Williams county today seeking "good honest men" who will qualify for service on the jury to sit in the trial of five men accused of participation in Herrin strip mine massacre.

The officers set off from the court, with full instructions from Judge Hartwell to keep away from the scene of the slayings and from Herrin in their search for men to make up the second venire.

Both the court and attorneys have become dissatisfied with the delay in getting the second panel for the trial. Practically every man questioned is either a miner, or has a fixed opinion as to the lawfulness of the killings.

The first venire of 130 will probably be exhausted today with only four jurors finally accepted and two tentatively passed.

Prosecutor Delos Duty, upon whom the burden of examination of veniremen has fallen, was relieved today by the State Senator Otis Glenn. Duty's voice was frayed and worn by the constant questioning.

Red Cross Membership Drive

By Robert E. Mansfield

The Rush County Chapter of the American Red Cross is again making its annual appeal for renewal of memberships. This should not be necessary. The services it has rendered, the wide range of its activities, and the splendid program it presents for 1923 should be sufficient to secure the active and generous support of every citizen of the county.

Every one is familiar with its record of service, especially during the world war when the call for service was universal and insistent, and how it met every emergency with promptness and efficiency.

Since the signing of the armistice the splendid army of trained and disciplined workers in the organization has devoted its energies to emergency, welfare and relief work.

It has trained and assigned, under the direction of local chapters, over 1200 public health nurses, one of this number being now employed by the Rush county chapter.

It has enrolled, and has ready for service 39,000 trained nurses.

To meet the menace of accident, it has established and maintains, 280 life saving corps.

During the past year it spent over $900,000 for emergency relief cases of fire, flood and other catastrophes.

It spent last year $9,000,000, and contributed the services of 50,000 volunteer workers in caring for 30,000 disabled veterans of the world war in hospitals, and in aiding their families.

The American Red Cross, operating under congressional authority, constitutes a volunteer army numbering more than 4,000,000 American men and women.

Its program, its purpose, is to wage incessant battle against disease and disaster, misery and suffering, in war and in peace.

It is the privilege, and should be the pride, as well as the duty of every citizen of the republic to serve in this army.

It is your Red Cross. Do your part by helping to put over the membership drive.

BONAR LAW HAS MAJORITY OF 85

British Premier Will Have Ample Opportunity To Test His Policy of "Tranquility"

ELECTION TURN SURPRISE

Proves to be Something in Nature of Conservative Landslide—Lloyd George not Downcast

By LLOYD ALLEN

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
London, Nov. 17.—With a clear majority of 85 seats over all other political parties in parliament, Premier Bonar Law is to have ample opportunity to test his policy of "tranquility" when commons convenes next Monday.

The conservatives won a tremendous victory; a victory that was a surprise to the country coming as it did after early announcement of the successes of the labor party. Heavy voting in the industrial districts had put many labor candidates into office early but when returns from outlying districts came in, Britain's general election of Wednesday proved to have been something in the nature of a conservative landslide.

Bonar Law's government will be unhampered for the present; his majority makes it possible for him to rule parliament in a fashion as did Lloyd George while at the helm of the coalition government.

The little Welsh ex-premier was not downcast by the result however. He was returned himself and he will have about him in the house a little group of national liberals which may prove the nucleus of an efficient opposition.

For the moment, labor is to be. For the moment, labor is to be candidates polled more votes and won more seats than all of the three other parties that contested conservative supremacy put together. But Arthur Henderson, former member of the coalition government, a prominent labor leader, was defeated.

THIEVES ABANDON MACHINE

Buick Automobile Belonging To Dan F. Kiplinger Is Recovered

A Buick automobile, owned by Dan F. Kiplinger of near Raleigh, was stolen from his garage at the rear of the farm residence during the night, and when a search was started this morning the car was found abandoned along the road about a mile south of the home. No motive could be assigned for the robbers leaving the machine unless they had ridden in it all night, and then brought it back to a place convenient for the owner to get it.

The police here were notified this morning that the machine had been stolen, and a watch was being kept for it. As far as could be learned, there was no damage done to the machine.

FRAMING OF A NEW WAGE SCALE FORECAST

Will Probably be Based on Competitive Fields, it Was Indicated at Mine Conference

THREE PLANS ARE SUBMITTED

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 17.—Framing of a new wage scale in the bituminous coal field on basis of comparative fields, was forecast at the joint conference of miners and operators today.

The conference voted down a proposition to draw up a national agreement.

Providing the competitive field basis is again adopted, it would include some changes in the districts as formerly constituted, including the adding of western Kentucky and West Virginia to the Central districts.

Three plans, proposed by the miners, could not be agreed upon by the individual operators. The miners representatives suggested a national settlement, a semi-national settlement, or a return to the old central competitive field system.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, declared either of these plans would be satisfactory to his men.

The operators, however, could not agree on a satisfactory application of any one of the plans to the different mining districts of the country.

A sub-committee of five miners and five operators after a long conference submitted their report to the general conference of thirty miners and thirty operators. The report carried no general recommendation and was discarded without debate.

TRUSTEES WARNED NOT TO BUY SUPPLIES

Eschbach Advises Them Not To Make Purchases Until They Become Familiar With Offices

LETTERS TO NEW TRUSTEES

Jesse E. Eschbach, chief examiner for the state board of accounts, has addressed a letter to the township trustees who were elected November 7, advising them not to permit school supply agents to load them up with supplies or pledges to buy until they are familiar with the needs of their schools and offices.

The trustees will begin a four-year term January 1, 1923, but the township advisory boards are supposed to take office immediately after the election, according to a law of 1917. Many trustees are being urged to buy equipment, it is said, when they are not familiar with what is needed. The letter received by trustees says:

"We recommended that no records of any kind be purchased or contracted until after trustees have taken office and are fully acquainted with the actual needs of their offices. In a large majority of cases no new records will be necessary, as we always urge officials to buy no new records until the old ones are completely filled."

CLARK BELIEVED TO BE A SUICIDE

Slayer of Wife And Small Son Has Killed Himself, In Opinion Of Prosecutor Haller

EACH REPORT INVESTIGATED

Notes Found in Clark's Room Indicate He Intended To Wipe Out Whole Family And Kill Himself

(By United Press)

Huntington, Ind., Nov. 17.—Leading his pursuers a wild chase through bottom lands and wading the cold waters of the Wabash to break his trail, Thomas Clark still defied four posses who searched the country side for him today to make him answer the charge of killing his wife and youngest son.

Prosecutor Crowley Haller said he believed Clark had committed suicide in an isolated spot and that his body will not be found for some time.

"We've followed every report, but every one of them proves a mirage," Haller said. "Somebody telephoned us they have seen him near Warren walking toward Montpelier. From another place, an acquaintance said he saw Clark eating in a restaurant at Jeff. Then someone claimed they saw him in the south part of the county. We investigated them all, but found neither hide nor hair of Clark."

"The posses searched all Wednesday night, all day yesterday and through last night. They're still looking for Clark, but my opinion is that he may have killed himself in an out-of-the-way place."

The hunted man, a former inmate of an insane asylum, is accused of crushing the skulls of his wife and son Herman, 8, with a club in the basement of their farm home and then making a pyre of oil-soaked fence rails in the chicken house for the wife's body. Both bodies burned almost beyond recognition were found by two young sons who extinguished the chicken house fire.

Notes found scribbled on paper in the house, writing in soap on the chicken house window pane and other details uncovered by investigators indicated that Clark had intended to wipe out his family of three sons living at home and the wife and then kill himself.

Coroner Morgan said he believed

TO PUT MOTOR BUSES UNDER STATE CONTROL

Campaign To Regulate Jitneys And Trucks Doing Intercity Business Started In Indianapolis

HIGHWAY TAX IS PROPOSED

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17.—A fight to put jitneys and motor trucks and inter-city busses under state regulations was started here today.

Copies of a resolution adopted by the Gary Chamber of Commerce urging the legislature to give the public service commission control over busses and trucks was picked up by the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce and broadcasted to all commercial bodies in the state, urging them to take similar action.

It is likely that a bill will be presented to the legislature meeting in January as a result of the agitation and that it will have the united support of a majority of Indiana chambers of commerce.

The law, if enacted, is expected to be patterned after statutes effective now in other states.

An effort will also be made in conjunction with presentation of the law to have the trucks and busses taxed for maintenance of highways.

With the copies of the resolution were sent "Memorandum of Facts" showing that the Gary Railroad Company is operating at a serious loss because of bus competition and that the busses operate only at morning and night during rush hours, while the interurban lines must operate continuously throughout the day, with guaranteed service in all kinds of weather, whether there is travel or not.

THREE PERSONS KILLED IN STILL EXPLOSIONS

Nine Others Injured and Two Buildings Burn in Chicago During Night Following Blasts

ITALIAN GROCER THE OWNER

Chicago, Nov. 17—Three persons were killed and nine injured during the night by the explosion of two moonshine stills. Two buildings were destroyed in the fire which followed the blast.

The body of Mrs. Jacob Verdoni, 31, wife of an Italian grocer who occupied one of the buildings and who was said by police to have been the owner of the stills, was found in the ruins of the buildings.

The body of Mary Verdoni, 9, a daughter, was found clasped in her mother's arms

Steve Bottino, 11, was rescued from the burning building by firemen and rushed to the hospital where he died.

Many children of Italian families living on the top floors were trapped. Heroic rescues were made by firemen. Both buildings were a mass of flames when the first equipment arrived. Chief Frank Braband took charge of the rescue work and was hailed as a hero for his daring.

Refusing to allow any of his men to enter the building because of the danger of collapsing walls, he personally crawled through a broken window from which tongues of flame were shooting fought his way to the children's beds and brought back an armful of sleeping tots which he passed to firemen waiting on the ladders at the window ledge. The chief made three perilous trips to the sleeping rooms and ordered that no water be turned on the fire until all children were accounted for.

A LESSON IN REALISM

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 17—Picture, row upon row of tiny faces arrayed on hospital cots, crippled children, maimed for life in traffic accidents.

Comes, Judge Charles L. Bartlett, Detroit jurist, down the aisle of the hospital ward escorting seventy convicted Detroit violators trooping in grim procession under police guard. "Children," announced the judge, "I have sentenced these men for speeding and I brought them here to show the results of the Detroit's thoughtless drivers.

Ever Think of That?

A mule cannot pull while he is kicking, and he cannot kick while he is pulling. Neither can you.

FRANCE PLANS TO REBUILD HER NAVY

Project Calling For Annual Expenditure of $20,000,000 Is Being Drafted By Minister

SUSPENDED DURING WAR

Weakness Of Naval Protection Is Suggested As Cause of Building Up Of Watercraft

By JOHN O'BRIEN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Paris (By Mail to United Press)—aiming at the reconstitution of the French navy, bringing it up to its pre-war strength, but taking into account the limitation imposed by the Washington agreement the minister of marine has elaborated a project calling for the expenditure of about $20,000,000 yearly for the next twenty years. The plan will be presented to the present session of the chamber of deputies.

Naval experts have recently been laying stress on the fact that France's sea defenses "have never been so weak in comparison with other nations since Napoleonic days. Construction was suspended during the war and scores of ships are out of date. A writer in the Petit Parisien sums up the total of France's fighting strength as six dreadnaughts five light cruisers, 38 large destroyers, 41 submarines, with three old style cruisers of the Voltaire type (10,800 tons) ten others of a still older pattern and a dozen or so torpedo boats, practically useless.

As far as coast defense is concerned, none of the heavy batteries has a range beyond ten kilometres (less than four miles). Most of the hydroplanes and other aerial defense weapons are out of date.

Comparing the navies of France and Italy, which were placed on the same footing at the Washington conference, it is found that while the number of dradnaughts is the same for both, Italy has a much superior light surface fleet in number and quantity.

The minister of marines proposes to ask for appropriations for tonnage annually. He will demand provisions for 175,000 tons for crisers; 330,000 tons for light cruisers; torpedo boats and destroyers and 65,000 tons for submarines and small coast defense craft.

Evansville—Judge Phil Gould adjourned court during the trial of Ed-Williams, Negro, charged of murdering his wife and allowed jurors and court attaches to attend the horse races.

Let Us Fix Up That Suit

A neat appearing suit doesn't necessarily mean that it is new.

Many a man who has come to us for a clean and press has been asked this very question, however.

More than that—one of our regular jobs is mending tears and places where the fabric has pulled apart, in such a manner that they cannot be seen. One man after another has received months of wear out of a suit of clothes he thought ready for the "old clothes man."

No matter how the condition, bring in that suit. Let us fix it, or press it, or both. We'll frankly tell you if it's beyond hope.

WILL GO TO HIGHER COURT

Board of Trade Case to Restrain Law Enforcement is Lost

(By United Press)—Chicago, Ill., Nov. 17.—Judge Carpenter in federal court today dismissed the petition of the Chicago board of trade for a permanent order restraining the government from an enforcement of the law preventing trading in grain futures. At the same time he continued in force a temporary order preventing enforcement of the act pending appeal to the supreme court. The judge's ruling was made after a hearing of a few moments in order to raise the case to the higher court. In continuing the stay order Judge Carpenter explained that such a course was followed in the interest of all those affected as this was considered the shortest course to the supreme court. The court also denied the application of the American Farm Bureau federation to intervene in the case as a defendant. The court also granted the board of trade an appeal to the supreme court.

Mohammed is the last of the Sultans who have ruled Turkey for many years, the nationalists having abolished the sultanate.

appeal to their customers. The selections have been made carefully and it is confidently predicted that the merchandise on display for the holidays this year will be the most attractive in the history of the city.

Already people are hearing the old slogan "Shop Early." In the last few years a greater number of people have made their selections as soon as possible after the holiday goods were on display. Christmas always brings additional dates in every home and the busy housewife is glad to have her Christmas buying out of the way as soon as possible. Realizing the advantage that comes to the public in buying early, merchants here have co-operated by making displays as soon as the holiday stocks arrive in their stores.

There are indications that the holiday trade this year will be the heaviest in recent years. Customers are already making inquiries about various articles which they desire for gifts for relatives and friends. In some stores selections have been made and the packages laid away for delivery later.

ALIGNMENT IN TWO BIG UNITS IS AIM

Purpose Of Merger Negotiations Under Way Among Packers—Armour And Swift To Head Them

HOW SCHEME WILL WORK OUT

(By United Press)

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Alignment of the "big five" packers into great units, one headed by J. Ogden Armour and the other headed by Louis F. Swift is the object of the present merger negotiations among the packers, it was learned from authoritative sources today.

The present scheme is for Armour to purchase Morris and company outright and then resume negotiations to buy the Wilson packing company. Previous efforts of Armour to buy Wilson were blocked by objections of Morris. The packers agreement provides that no two companies may be merged if any one of the big five objects. Morris fearing the domination of Armour, protested the combination with Wilson and now Armour is seeking to buy the Morris interests in order to clear the way for the Wilson deal.

That Swift will purchase the Cudahy company in case the Armour-Wilson-Morris combine is effected, is generally understood in packers circles.

RESTORE THE ERRING:—
Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.—Galatians 6: 1.

Why Advertising Pays

Some firms have maintained that advertising is an expense added to cost of distributing goods.

Let us see how that works. There seems no reason to doubt that any concern that distributes reliable merchandise can secure and hold a greatly increased trade by advertising. Watch the crowd flock into a city store after a sale is announced and your own eyes will prove it.

Over and over again, small and obscure firms have gone ahead in a short time, as the result of judicious publicity. When a store tells about its goods and solicits patronage, people feel a desire to see the merchandise thus offered, and they also think that such a place is a live one that will give good service.

Many stores double their sales in a short time through using regular publicity. But the expense of such a store did not double from the increase of trade. Its overhead costs for interest, taxes, rent, salaries, etc., would have increased but very little. And its operating expenses would not come anywhere near doubling. Its total costs might not be more than 25 percent above the figures on the old basis.

Consequently the charge to be made against each article for overhead and running expenses would be much less than previously. The store could sell stuff for less money than before.

Advertising enables the enterprising merchant to do business on a bigger scale and take advantage of special opportunities. If the non-advertiser is offered a large lot of goods at a special price, he might feel that the deal was too big for him to swing with his regular trade.

But the advertiser would know that by announcing a special sale, he could get the public coming to his place, and could work off those goods in a short time. He could afford to sell them at a low price, and the deal would pay through the big volume of sales in a brief period.

Thus the advertising store can handle large deals at a profit both to itself and the public, and newspaper publicity is one of the biggest forces tending to reduce the cost of distributing merchandise.

(Chicago Tribune)
Helping Uncle Sam

It is certain that if Uncle Sam fails to do the right thing it will not be for lack of advice. There are very few statesmen or publicists in England or France who have not taken notice of our benighted condition and pointed out the way for us to go. We noticed also there is a good deal of similarity in the directions. The path pretty generally leads from Uncle Sam's strong box to the European pocket.

Sir George Paish, an English financial expert, is the latest of our advisers, and we will say for him that he leaves no doubt of what is wanted. For example, he tells us that we are hoarding our gold in government vaults when it ought to be out on the job restoring international trade. The fact that we have an interest in protecting ourselves from inflation is noted without much respect.

Sir George also rebukes us for putting up our tariff barriers and wants them lowered so that foreign goods can "flow over them."

Next we receive praise for our ship-building program in the war "as without ships we might have starved in England," and we are advised to regard these ships as a war product and sell them for what we can get. Finally, we are informed that our immigration policy is a great misfortune, and ought to be reversed so that though free immigration we may increase production and therefore better our country as a producer—and as a market for Europe.

Perhaps we ought to repeat that Sir George is a financial expert and not editor of Punch. As a well-spring of disinterested advice, we propose Sir George for the diamond medal. But we might wait until M. Clemenceau arrives.

DOZEN PLAYERS ON THE TRIP

The high school basketball team was off for Columbus this afternoon, where they will take on the high school team of that city tonight in the city hall building and an even break is expected by the local fans.

Columbus is still nursing the two defeats given them last spring by the Rushville team, when they were put out of the running in the regional tourney at Bloomington by Rushville. The game tonight, from their standpoint, is for revenge, while Coach Jones from this city expects to add another victory to the locals' score card.

Not enough persons signified their intentions of going on a special train, and the project had to be dropped, although it is assured that Rushville will be well represented along the sidelines tonight. Many automobiles will make the trip, and the band will go down on a truck.

The local mentor will take along a dozen players and the exact lineup is not known, but in all probability the team will start with McNamara and Hilligoss, at forwards, Walker at center, Phillips and Cartmel at guards.

Football Reaches Semi-Finals

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Nov. 17.—Football begins to pass out tomorrow with the semi-final card of the 1922 season. It has been a wonderful season, the best in the history of the great game and the end of the road comes not as a welcome event for the millions who now follow the game.

The next to last program of the year is not an eight or nine star brand like some of its predecessors but there are a number of attractive games on this card:

Yale against Princeton.
Penn State against Pennsylvania.
Washington and Jefferson against Pittsburgh.
Harvard against Brown.
Dartmouth against Columbia.
Syracuse against Colgate.
Iowa against Ohio State.
Chicago against Illinois.
Michigan against Wisconsin.
California against Nevada.

Not only because it is traditionally the star number of the program but because it promises to be the bitterest contest of the day, the battle of the Princeton Tiger and the Yale Bull Dog is the outstanding game of the card.

Last year Yale defeated Princeton 13 to 7 and avenged the 20 to 0 defeat the Tigers plastered on them in 1920.

O'Hearn, the brilliant Yale half-back, ran right end for twenty yards in the first period and Mac Aldrich, one of the greatest of all Yale players, added the winning margin with two goals from the field.

It was one of the greatest battles of the year and Gilroy threatened to win for Princeton in the last two minutes of play when he got away with a forward pass and a long run only to be downed inches from the goal line. Yale held and won.

Penn State and Pennsylvania come a close second as the best game of the day. Since Penn pulled its surprising defeat of the Navy, the Philadelphians are treated with much more respect. Penn State may not have as spectacular a team as last year's eleven, but they will always be good as long as the Bezek system is used. Most critics agree that Penn State's system is as good as Harvard's and some consider it better.

With the exception of the scoreless tie with California, Pittsburgh gave Washington and Jefferson the hardest game of the season last year with a defeat by one touch-down. Pittsburgh got away badly this year but they came back strong and they are bound to give the Presidents a real fight. There is considerable rivalry between the two clubs.

Harvard will have anything but an easy game against Brown, although the Crimson with the Yale game just one week off may be content to win by a field goal or a single touch-down. Columbia is just the kind of an erratic team to turn around after a miserable season and give Dartmouth a whale of a fight. Colgate under the coaching of Dick Harlow, Hugo Bezek's former lieutenant, has developed into a good eleven and Syracuse will have no cinch to win.

Ohio State hasn't the habit of being anything like a mark for Western Conference eleven and Iowa may get a huge surprise from the Buckeyes. Michigan with Wisconsin and Chicago with Illinois are other good cards on the "Big Ten" program.

Applications for More Than 200,000
Seats For Season's Gridiron
Classic Received

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Princeton, N. J., Nov. 17.—Led by Johnny "take a chance" Gorman, the Princeton Tigers, the gridiron's greatest gamblers, will push everything they have to the middle of the board here tomorrow against what is generally regarded as a better hand held by Yale.

Better hands held twice this season by Chicago and Harvard have been overcome by the reckless abandon and the wild chance taking spirit of little Gorman and his band.

In addition to being one of the established season-after-season classics, the battle between the Tiger and the Bull Dog tomorrow will be the best all-around event on the season card and Princeton athletics officials have come to the belief that everyone in the east wants to see the game.

Applications for more than 200,000 seats were received and only by providing five thousand extra seats in the special wooden stands at the end of the stadium was impossible to care of 55,744 applications. This will be by 5,000 the largest crowd that has ever seen a game in the Palmer stadium.

The Yale squad will not work out in the stadium today. They are to arrive in Trenton shortly after noon and they will not leave there until they board an auto caravan tomorrow for their trip to the stadium.

While no official announcements have been made, the Yale backfield is expected to consist of Neidinger, Jordan, Neal and Scott. The Tigers no doubt will use Gorman, Caldwell, Crum and Cleaves behind the line.

GERMAN CHAMPION LOSES

New York, Nov. 17.—With two victories and no defeats, Jake Schaeffer, present champion, and Willie Hoppe, former title holder, are still leading the international field in the world's billiard championship tournament.

Hoppe kept his slate clean last night by defeating Welker Cochran, 500 to 163, for an average of 55.5/9. Hoppe's high run was 192.

Edouard Hormans, Belgian champion, defeated Erich Hagenlaecher, German champion, 55 to 301.

In today's matches, Roger Conti, the French champion, will play Hagenlaecher, and Schaeffer will oppose Horemans.

Makes Annual Report Which Shows Big Surplus On Hand

GETS MONEY FROM LICENSES

Office Also Gets Reimbursements On Many Fines That Are Paid—
1769 Arrests In A Year

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17.—The annual report of the fish and game division of the state conservation department, now being compiled for the fiscal year 1921-1922, shows receipts were $148,964.06, and disbursements for the same period, were $132,788.26, according to George N. Manfield, division superintendent. The report covers the fiscal year which closes September 30. It will be completed shortly and copies submitted to members of the conservation commission, Governor Warren T. McCray and Richard Lieber, director, Mr. Manfield said.

Receipts for the preceding year were $132,852.56, and disbursements $116,267.83; thus the division received $16,111.40 more money in licenses and fees and spent $16,520.50 in excess of the amount spent the previous year. The unexpected balance for the past year was $16,175.80.

The total number of licenses sold in 1921-1922 was 152,425, of which 143,093 were resident hunting and fishing licenses, 10,183 non-resident fishing, 116 non-resident hunting, and 31 licenses to fish from boats and with nets in Lake Michigan. The greatest gain, the report shows was made in the number of resident licenses, there being 15,787 more issued than in the fiscal year previous. The gain in non-resident fishing licenses was 532, in non-resident hunting licenses 19, and for fishing in Lake Michigan from boats, there were six less licenses than issued the year previous.

During the year there were 1,573 fees of $5.00 each, collected by the division from the courts, following conviction of violators, as against 1,268 fees collected in 1921. The increase naturally is due to the increased number of convictions. According to the law, when one is convicted and pays a fine for violating the fish and game laws, a fee of $5 is allowed the conservation department, and it is made a part of the fine. This fee goes into the state's school fund.

According to the report there was a total of 1769 arrests last year from which 1,666 convictions were secured. The largest number of arrests made by a single warden was 118, and this honor fell to George Wyatt of Fort Wayne. The general average of the wardens was 60 arrests.

TO OPEN AT SHELBYVILLE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17.—The Em-Roe basket ball squad, after three weeks of practice has been reduced to seven players and this number will start Dec. 1. Bassett, who has been the fastest of the Em-Roe players for several seasons has won a forward position again and with him will be Stewart, star of the Rushville quintet last year, and Montgomery, who starred with the Lizton team that won the state independent tourney last spring.

Hite, ex-Martinsville high school player has clinched the center position through his good jumping at the tipoff and his passing. He was given a place on the all-star team at the Tri-State high school tournament at Cincinnati, last season. The guards will be O. Behrent, Everett Babb and Marty Frankfort, Em-Roe veterans.

The Em-Roes will open their road schedule at Shelbyville, Dec. 1, and will play Franklin college here Dec. 12, in their first home game. A game with Wabash is in prospect for Dec. 16, here and two home games will be played in January, with the New York Nationals and the Hewitt Rubber Company quintet. These four games are all that will be played in January, with the New York Nationals and the Hewitt Rubber Company quintet. These four games are all that will be played here this season, according to present plans of Manager Callahan.

SANITY OF TWO WOMEN IN POISON PLOT TESTED

Chicago Psychopathic Expert Believes Alieged Feminine Bluebeards are Not Insane

SNEER AT THE QUESTIONS

Chicago, Nov., 17.—The sanity of Tillie Klinek and Nellie Koulik charged with the wholesale poisoning of husbands and relatives for their insurance, was tested today.

Dr. William J. Hickerson, city psychopathic expert who made a four hour examination of the alleged feminine bluebeards, believes the women are not insane, although he has concluded they are both suffering from a mild case of dementia precox.

The two women sneered and grunted at the questions of the alienists.

Mrs. Klinek, who is alleged to have poisoned at least four husbands, gloated over her deeds, Stella Grantkowski, a farmer friend of the woman told the state's attorney.

"Mrs. Klinek told me" she said, that she had lifted the body of her third husband, Frank Kupezyk up in the coffin and laughing in his face said "you'll never get up again, damn you."

AMUSEMENTS

At Carthage Two Days

An unusual offering, "Rags to Riches" will be shown tonight and Saturday at the Auditorium at Carthage, together with a vaudeville entertainment by Ethelyn Rogers, who will have magician stunts and comedy. Wesley Barry, the 15-year old, freckled face motion picture star is the headliner in the play, "Rags to Riches," was recently shown at the Circle Theatre in Indianapolis.

At Mystic Two Days

The much talked-of picture, "Reported Missing," comes to the Mystic today and Saturday.

This Selznick picture, in which Owen Moore is starring is really one of those super-productions we hear so much about but rarely see. It is full of the type of thrills which have made motion pictures the world's most popular entertainment. One of these scenes, a race between a sea sled and a hydroaeroplane, is worth the price of admission alone. Following this chase comes one in high powered autos. In this latter race Moore, in the part of Richard Boyd, stages a scene which is the replica of those thrilling events which fill the daily papers on summer Mondays. In endeavoring to steer clear of a child in his path he swings his machine over an embankment.

On addition to these thrills there is a shipwreck which contains a series of remarkable sea scenes photographed in a manner which vividly illustrates the rapid artistic advance of the cinema.

Tom Wilson one of the D. W. Griffith's old stand-bys, is the prime mover in a lot of comedy scenes, particularly those in which he attempts to wreak revenge on a group of Orientals who are trying to do away with his master Owen Moore.

Pauline Garon, the perfect flapper furnishes the romance and gives an excellent portrayal of a young girl madly in love and intent upon making herself the inspiration of the man she adores. Owen Moore, the lucky man, in the character of Richard Boyd certainly needs the inspiration as he is the absolute limit insofar as not caring whether school keeps or not.

"Reported Missing" is fine entertainment throughout.

AMONG THE NEW HATS

Three models, as shown here, reveal the distinguishing features of the new season's hats. At the top a wide-brimmed velvet hat bears handsome Japanese aigrettes, set under a jeweled bar across the front. Below it a distinguished hat of metal cloth and velvet illustrates the graceful placing of feather ornaments. A simpler round hat finishes the group. It is made of velvet in two colors.

GOING TO NEW YORK

If, out of every one hundred people in civilized lands, seventy-five were minus one hand, one foot, one eye, or one ear, every one would marvel.

Yet it is a fact that today seventy-five people of every one hundred are defective in what is undoubtedly our most precious gift—the faculty of sight.

There are only twenty-five people in every one hundred who have perfect sight. The remainder are, or should be, wearing glasses in order to correct the deficiencies of their vision.

If you are not absolutely positive you have perfect vision, have your eyes examined right away, and be sure.

CITY IN INDIANA MAY BE SELECTED

Research Work to Develop Perfect Children is to be Started by National Organization

MANY STATES ARE FAVORED

Indiana Has Several Cities Which Qualify for The Experiments Which Will be Held

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17—Physical and mental perfection in human flesh may be sought by experiment in an Indiana city.

Research work to develop perfect children and reduce infant mortality will be started soon by the National Child Health Council in the Upper Mississippi Valley and—

Any city in Indiana meeting the qualifications may be chosen as the proving grounds.

Dr. Ada Schweitzer, director of infant and child hygiene in Indiana, said the choice lies between cities in Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North and South Dakotas and Wisconsin, with Indiana thought to be slightly favored.

The city must have a population of 15,000 to 25,000, must have an infant mortality not less than 90 out of each 1,000, must have 93 per cent of its birth registered and must be willing to cooperate in the movement.

Six cities in Indiana at least are qualified to compete on basis of population and infant mortality. Dr. Schweitzer said. These cities are Vincennes, Michigan City, Richmond, Newcastle, Elkhart, and Huntington.

The National Health Council is an association of six nationwide health organizations.

The demonstration in the north will be followed by one in the south and another in the west. The council has approximately $300,000 for the work.

In the city chosen the organization will work for perfection of the child's health from its prenatal stage to adolescence.

Here are some of the things according to Dr. Schweitzer, that the council will do:

Regulate the cities medical service; inspect schools; regulate the health of the child under school age; teach health in the schools; supervise the child's recreation; regulate the child's eating to keep its weight up to standard; organize the children to compete in observing health rules; regulate these conditions of the working children; inspect the health of dependant children and children dependents; inspect food water sewage disposal and cleanliness of restaurants, grocers, etc; also look after the mental health of the children.

SHOWS HOW LIFE CAN BE PROLONGED YEARS

If Tuberculosis Could Be Stamped Out, 2 1-2 Years Would Be Added to The Life of Every Person

SEAL SALE IS A BENEFIT

Columbus, Ind., Nov. 17—If Indiana and American might eliminate tuberculosis from the list of diseases that now assail the population two and one half years would be added on the average, to the life of every living person. This statement was made today by Dr. George T. MacCoy, President of the Indiana Tuberculosis Association, parent organization of the ninety-two county tuberculosis associations.

Plans are going forward here just now for the 1922 Tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale, the proceeds of which go to carry on an educational campaign against the spread of the disease in every community in the state.

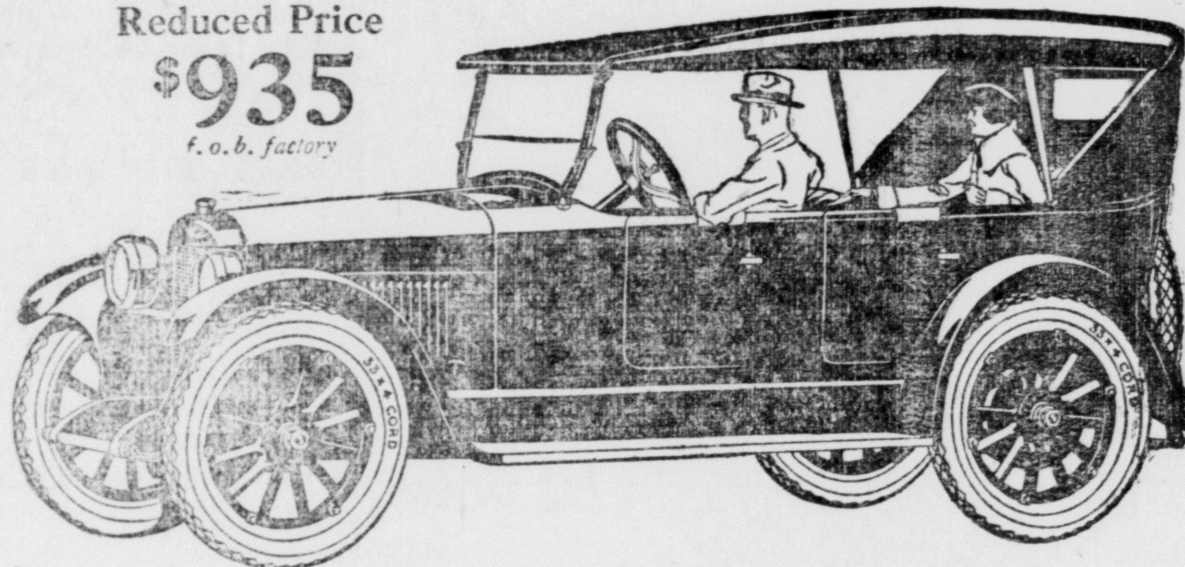

Dr. MacCoy pointed out today that recent figures show that capitalizing each life in a population of 100,000,000 at $100 per year the net saving to America—if tuberculosis were eliminated—would be at least twenty-five billion dollars. This vast sum can be saved, if the fight against the "white plague" is steadily kept up.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17—Despite the fact that no general campaign for funds for the Riley Hospital for Children has yet been made in Indianapolis, gifts from Indianapolis men and women continue to be received at the headquarters of the Riley Memorial Association in charge of the hospital movement.

During the last two weeks contributions totalling more than $20,000 were received at the headquarters, making a total of nearly $450,000 which already has been contributed by less than 300 persons in the capital city. Contributions to the Riley hospital are payable one-fifth annually over a five-year period. When completed the hospital will be one of the finest in the world for the exclusive care and treatment of sick and crippled children from every Indiana county.

DRYS HOLD SWING IN NEW CONGRESS

At Least Two Thirds of the Members Favor Volstead Act, Canvass of New Congress Reveals

"WETS" WILL HAVE TO WAIT

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 17—The dries hold a two thirds majority in the new congress. Wets hope of amending the Volstead act must be deferred until after next election at least.

Wayne B. Wheeler, legislative chief of the anti-saloon league, told the United Press today a careful canvass of the new congressmen had been made and that as a result dry leaders are confident they still control.

Wheeler declared:

1—Congressional dries now are massing their forces to withstand the wet uprising which is expected as a result of the wet sentiment in the recent election.

2—An effort will be made to take prohibition enforcement "out of politics" by passage of a bill placing all federal agents under civil service.

3—No new teeth measures are planned for introduction in congress—dries being supremely content with the present law.

Wheeler declared "the wet era" heralded by the election was largely a myth. Investigation had determined, he said, that many congressmen and senators who were claimed by the wets are not wets at all.

SEE BITTER FIGHT OVER SHIP SUBSIDY

To Be Back On Doorstep Of Congress When Special Session Starts Latter Part Of November

HARDING FAVORS SUBSIDY

Subsidy Is Imperative If U. S. Is To Have Merchant Marine To Compete For World Trade

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 17—Having been given the benefit of the most intensive advertising campaign ever put on by any agency of the government, outside of the Liberty loan days, the administration ship subsidy measure will be back on the door step of congress for a showdown when the expected special session starts the latter part of November.

Defeat of the measure would constitute the worst possible blow to the administration, as President Harding stands as the foremost champion of subsidy legislation. Seeing the bitter opposition to the bill, thus making it an out-and-out test of his leadership over congress.

The fight comes first in the House. The plan is to put the subsidy bill to a vote there in the early days of the special session, scheduled to start November 20, and not to try for Senate action until the regular term beginning in December.

Since congress adjourned in September a nation-wide campaign has been waged on behalf of the subsidy. Under the direction of Chairman A. B. Lasker of the U. S. Shipping board former head of a big Chicago advertising concern, speakers have been sent into all sections of the country and newspaper offices everywhere have been flooded with propaganda to point out the needs of a subsidy for the American shipping interests.

Lasker assured President Harding he would "sell" the subsidy to the American people by the time congress returned, so that congressmen could not refuse to vote for the bill.

The subsidy, the country has been told, is imperative if the United States is to have a merchant marine to compete for world trade, and to back up the navy in event of war.

Success of the subsidy appears to be very much in doubt. The measure has gained many new supporters since liquor was ruled off American ships, and Lasker's publicity drive has netted results but even now with the time for a test near at hand, the bill is far from being "sold".

The belief is that Republican leaders can drive the subsidy bill through the House, by taking it up under a rule allowing limited debate and no amendments from the floor. However, there may be a different story in the Senate. Senators opposed to the bill have it within their power to talk the subsidy to death if they see they cannot defeat it in a vote.

Administration leaders emphatically deny reports that they have been "trade" between friends of the subsidy, advocates of acceptance of the Ford offer for Muscle Shoals, and the farm bloc, whereby the subsidy will be allowed to go through. The subsidy, they declare, will stand or fall purely on its own merits.

Chicago, Gambling Mad, Is The Monte Carlo Of Western World

Chicago, Nov. 17.—(United Press)—Chicago is the Monte Carlo of the western world.

Gambling flourishes in nearly every section of the city—apparently ignoring the anti-gambling laws.

The most picturesque scenes of the old west and the Yukon—as they are read about in books—are reenacted here nightly.

Proprietors of gambling houses are reaping enormous profits, and they entertain jovially for their game-hungry clients.

The famous blackbelt on the South side is sprinkled with gambling dens, famed for their "crap" tables.

The select places, reputed hangouts for gamblers, on men and vice leaders are jammed with visitors nightly.

A printed card distributed carelessly, is a ticket of admission. An armed look-out stands guard at the double-doored entrance, peering through a porthole. A signal from without, a flash of his card, and the visitor is admitted to the second door.

Here he is "frisked" thoroughly by a colored attendant for firearms. Revolvers are "checked" at the door and returned as the "guest" leaves.

Disarmed, the door swings open the porters hurl him a good-luck and he is admitted.

The large room is dense with smoke and crowded. Whites and blacks mingle freely, in a great mob, betting widely on each throw of the spotted cubes on huge plush-covered tables.

Skilled cashiers, announcers and decoys, are at each table. Oily-voiced croupiers urge the better on: "Let's gamble boys—pay the field—he wins—he loses—double up and beat the game—the more you bet the more you win."

Gambling, too now flourishes on Chicago's west side. Rows of saloons technically dry, are anterooms to gambling parlors in back or upstairs.

Here are rows of gambling tables—roulette, black-jack, poker, faro and fan-tan.

Arthur Burrage Farwell, president of the Chicago Law and Order league declared it was useless to wage war on the gamblers.

"I have reported these places repeatedly to the authorities. I have taken the matter to the mayor the chief of police and the state's attorney's office," he said.

"As far as I can learn, no effort has been made to enforce the laws or to close up any of the gambling dens."

ILLINOIS PLANS NEW DISEASE LAW

State Health Commissioner Will Seek Passage Of Bill Making Clergymen Liable For Marriages

AGAINST SOCIAL DISEASES

Penalty Will Be Attached If Ministers Marry Couple Who Have Not Passed Physical Test

By CHARLES R. LYNCH
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, Nov. 17.—(United Press)—The clergy of Illinois will be subject to suits for damages if they perform marriages of persons suffering from social diseases, if a bill proposed by Dr. H. H. Bundesen, Chicago Health Commissioner, is approved by the next Illinois legislature.

"We will not only make a state law requiring a certificate of a reputable physician accompany each marry persons who are not free it a civil offense for a minister to marry persons who are not free from these dread diseases," Dr. Bundesen said.

During the last year the head of the Chicago health department has gained a nationwide reputation for his forceful handling of the vice situation in Chicago.

"Bring it out in the open you can't fight anything in the dark," Bundesen declared, outlining his plan for fighting social diseases.

"These maladies effect more than a quarter of a million people right here in Chicago.

"Publicity propaganda and education that is what we need to wipe out this scourge which claims more lives yearly than tuberculosis ever did.

"Suppose we treated the American flag with as much secrecy as we do our sex problem. If we did, we wouldn't have much respect for the flag.

"But we don't. We bring the flag out and explain what it stands for. We give it publicity and we get patriotism.

"Young men and women should have just the same regard for their bodies as they do for their flag.

"Wouldn't it be an ideal country if every man, woman and child understood what a wonderful thing their bodies were and revered them and held them clean from temptation.

"A country with citizen's like that would dominate the world.

"You can't teach children sex matters too young. Just answer their questions. Answer them truthfully and use the right terms. Don't try to throw a cloak of pretty names around these instructions.

"Your child will gain confidence in you. When later he hears things which he picks up on the street he will come to you with all of his sex problems."

Bundesen has launched a bitter fight to solve the social problem in Chicago. He has used big red placards not only on houses of ill fame but on private dwellings, inmates of which refused medical attention for sexual diseases.

"They all promise to take the treatment after the placards have been up a few hours," he said.

Bundesen appealed for and received the support of the Chicago clergy in his fight for a medical certificate with every marriage license.

He scathingly arraigned several ministers together who did not agree with him.

"One of them said that such a demand would result in unmarried men and women living together. Does he mean to say that members of his church would go and live together if they were refused a license to wed because of a sexual disease?"

"This social fight of ours is going to give social disease the knock-out blow, just as the publicity and educational campaign against tuberculosis cut the death rate from that disease more than 60 per cent," the doctor said.

A score of years ago the death rate for tuberculosis was 187 in every 100,000. Today the death rate from the white plague is less than 70 per 100,000.

"We can do the same thing with social diseases. But we must come out in the open and face the issue squarely.

"The trouble is that parents refuse to discuss sex with their children."

"One clinic in Chicago last month treated more than 20,000 cases of social disease" was the way the health commissioner summed up the situation.

INDIANS WILL HAVE PART

All Tribes in Oklahoma Will Assist in Inauguration January 1

Oklahoma City, Okla. Nov 17—Arrangements have been completed for Indian war dances on the state capitol grounds here as an additional feature of the old fashioned inauguration in January, Governor-elect Jack Walton, announced today.

Representatives of all the Indian tribes in the state will perform their ancient tribal rites, "Governor Jack" said. Chief Buntington, former head of the Cherokee tribe will be honor guest.

"This celebration will be typically old fashioned Oklahoman and it will be the biggest thing ever pulled off here," Walton declared, reiterating that work clothes would be "formal" and no "full dress or plug hats would be allowed", at the inauguration.

WEEKLY STORE NEWS

From ALLEN'S

We have never believed in special sales. When an article comes into our stock we price it as low as possible and that is our price every day. For example an article that we sell for 23c might be sold on Saturday for 20c and for 25c the rest of the week and the net profit would be about the same, but how about those who pay 25c, will they feel that they have been fairly treated?

Our space never permits us to mention but a very few of the things we sell. We try to select articles that are representative of the many varieties of goods in our store.

HIGH SCHOOL FIVE OFF FOR COLUMBUS

Many Rushville Fans Will be on Sidelines Tonight to See Local Athletes in Action

DOZEN PLAYERS ON THE TRIP

The high school basketball team was off for Columbus this afternoon, where they will take on the high school team of that city tonight in the city hall building and an even break is expected by the local fans.

Columbus is still nursing the two defeats given them last spring by the Rushville team, when they were put out of the running in the regional tourney at Bloomington by Rushville. The game tonight, from their standpoint, is for revenge, while Coach Jones from this city expects to add another victory to the locals' score card.

Not enough persons signified their intentions of going on a special train, and the project had to be dropped, although it is assured that Rushville will be well represented along the sidelines tonight. Many automobiles will make the trip, and the band will go down on a truck.

The local mentor will take along a dozen players and the exact lineup is not known, but in all probability the team will start with McNamara and Hilligoss, at forwards, Walker at center, Phillips and Cartmel at guards.

Football Reaches Semi-Finals

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Nov. 17.—Football begins to pass out tomorrow with the semi-final card of the 1922 season. It has been a wonderful season, the best in the history of the great game and the end of the road comes not as a welcome event for the millions who now follow the game.

The next to last program of the year is not an eight or nine star brand like some of its predecessors but there are a number of attractive games on this card:

Yale against Princeton.
Penn State against Pennsylvania.
Washington and Jefferson against Pittsburgh.
Harvard against Brown.
Dartmouth against Columbia.
Syracuse against Colgate.
Iowa against Ohio State.
Chicago against Illinois.
Michigan against Wisconsin.
California against Nevada.

Not only because it is traditionally the star number of the program but because it promises to be the bitterest contest of the day, the battle of the Princeton Tiger and the Yale Bull Dog is the outstanding game of the card.

Last year Yale defeated Princeton 13 to 7 and avenged the 20 to 0 defeat the Tigers plastered on them in 1920.

O'Hearn, the brilliant Yale half-back, ran right end for twenty yards in the first period and Mac Aldrich, one of the greatest of all Yale players, added the winning margin with two goals from the field.

It was one of the greatest battles of the year and Gilroy threatened to win for Princeton in the last two minutes of play when he got away with a forward pass and a long run only to be downed inches from the goal line. Yale held and won.

Penn State and Pennsylvania come a close second as the best game of the day. Since Penn pulled its surprising defeat of the Navy, the Philadelphians are treated with much more respect. Penn State may not have as spectacular a team as last year's eleven, but they will always be good as long as the Bezek system is used. Most critics agree that Penn State's system is as good as Harvard's and some consider it better.

With the exception of the scoreless tie with California, Pittsburgh gave Washington and Jefferson the hardest game of the season last year with a defeat by one touch-down. Pittsburgh got away badly this year but they came back strong and they are bound to give the Presidents a real fight. There is considerable rivalry between the two clubs.

Harvard will have anything but an easy game against Brown, although the Crimson with the Yale game just one week off may be content to win by a field goal or a single touch-down. Columbia is just the kind of an erratic team to turn around after a miserable season and give Dartmouth a whale of a fight. Colgate under the coaching of Dick Harlow, Hugo Bezek's former lieutenant, has developed into a good eleven and Syracuse will have no cinch to win.

Ohio State hasn't the habit of being anything like a mark for Western Conference elevens and Iowa may get a huge surprise from the Buckeyes. Michigan with Wisconsin and Chicago with Illinois are other good cards on the "Big Ten" program.

PRINCETON TAKES GAMBLER'S CHANCE

Tigers Will Push Everything They Have to Middle of Board Against Yale's Better Hand

TWICE SUCCESSFUL BEFORE

Applications for More Than 200,000 Seats For Season's Gridiron Classic Received

By HENRY L. FARRELL (U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Princeton, N. J., Nov. 17.—Led by Johnny "take a chance" Gorman, the Princeton Tigers, the gridiron's greatest gamblers, will push everything they have to the middle of the board here tomorrow against what is generally regarded as a better hand held by Yale.

Better hands held twice this season by Chicago and Harvard have been overcome by the reckless abandon and the wild chance taking spirit of little Gorman and his band.

In addition to being one of the established season-after-season classics, the battle between the Tiger and the Bull Dog tomorrow will be the best all-around event on the season card and Princeton athletics officials have come to the belief that everyone in the east wants to see the game.

Applications for more than 200,000 seats were received and only by providing five thousand extra seats in the special wooden stands at the end of the stadium was it possible to care of 55,744 applications. This will be by 5,000 the largest crowd that has ever seen a game in the Palmer stadium.

The Yale squad will not work out in the stadium today. They are to arrive in Trenton shortly after noon and they will not leave there until they board an auto caravan tomorrow for their trip to the stadium.

While no official announcements have been made, the Yale backfield is expected to consist of Neidinger, Jordan, Neal and Scott. The Tigers no doubt will use Gorman, Caldwell, Crum and Cleaves behind the line.

HOPPE AND SCHAEFFER LEAD BILLIARD PLAY

Former Keeps Slate Clean Thursday Night When He Defeats Cochran, 500 to 163

GERMAN CHAMPION LOSES

New York, Nov. 17.—With two victories and no defeats, Jake Schaeffer, present champion, and Willie Hoppe, former title holder, are still leading the international field in the world's billiard championship tournament.

Hoppe kept his slate clean last night by defeating Welker Cochran, 500 to 163, for an average of 55.5/9. Hoppe's high run was 192.

Edouard Hornum, Belgian champion, defeated Erich Hagenlacher, German champion, 55 to 301.

In today's matches, Roger Conti, the French champion, will play Hagenlacher, and Schaeffer will oppose Horemans.

New York.—J. Fredrick Byers of Pittsburgh, president of the United States Golf Association, and the entire list of 1921-1922 officials have been picked for re-election by the body's nominating committee, it has been announced. The annual meeting probably will be held here instead of Atlanta.

Paris.—Talk about another Beckett-Carpentier fight is unfounded, Carpentier said. "I'm not going to fight anyone until I get another crack at that Siki. I hope the boxing federation does not make me wait nine months for it," he declared.

New York.—Carl Mays will pitch for the New York Yanks next year and I'll bet dough that he's winning 25 games for us," Col. Tim Huston, part owner of the Yanks, said. "Mays were asked on Mays as a disciplinary measure, Huston said.

GAME DEPARTMENT HAS BIG BALANCE

mile south of corporate limits of K State Conservation Department Makes Annual Report Which Shows Big Surplus On Hand

GETS MONEY FROM LICENSES

Once Also Gets Reimbursements On Many Fines That Are Paid—1769 Arrests In A Year

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17.—The annual report of the fish and game division of the state conservation department, now being compiled for the fiscal year 1921-1922, shows receipts were $148,964.06, and disbursements for the same period, were $132,788.26, according to George N. Manfield, division superintendent. The report covers the fiscal year which closes September 30. It will be completed shortly and copies submitted to members of the conservation commission, Governor Warren T. McCray and Richard Lieber, director, Mr. Manfield said.

Receipts for the preceding year were $132,852.56, and disbursements $116,267.83; thus the division received $16,111.40 more money in licenses and fees and spent $16,520.50 in excess of the amount spent the previous year. The unexpected balance for the past year was $16,175.80.

The total number of licenses sold in 1921-1922 was 152,425, of which 143,093 were resident hunting and fishing licenses, 10,183 non-resident fishing, 116 non-resident hunting, and 31 licenses to fish from boats and with nets in Lake Michigan. The greatest gain, the report shows was made in the number of resident licenses, there being 15,787 more issued than in the fiscal year previous. The gain in non-resident fishing licenses was 532, in non-resident hunting licenses 19, and for fishing in Lake Michigan from boats, there were six less licenses than issued the year previous.

During the year there were 1,573 fees of $5.00 each, collected by the division from the courts, following conviction of violators, as against 1,268 fees collected in 1921. The increase, naturally is due to the increased number of convictions. According to the law, when one is convicted and pays a fine for violating the fish and game laws, a fee of $5 is allowed the conservation department, and it is made a part of the fine. This fee goes into the state's school fund.

According to the report there was a total of 1769 arrests last year from which 1,666 convictions were secured. The largest number of arrests made by a single warden was 118, and this honor fell to George Wyatt of Fort Wayne. The general average of the wardens was 60 arrests.

FIGHT RESULTS

New York.—Pancho Villa, American flyweight champion, won a 15 round decision from Abe Goldstein, New York bantamweight, in a slow and uninteresting bout.

Lowell, Mass.—Abe Friedman, won the New England bantamweight championship by taking a ten round decision from Steve Castle Lawrence.

KANNADY TAKEN TO PRISON

Ed Spradling, deputy sheriff, has returned home from Michigan City, where he took Thomas Kannady Thursday to begin serving a sentence of from 2 to 21 years on a charge of arson. The deputy sheriff was accompanied by Elsbury Pea of this city.

GLENWOOD GIRL HONORED

Miss Marcia Kendall, daughter of Mrs. M. M. Kendall of Glenwood, who is attending Miami University, is among the college students who are members of the honor group. This group includes students of the highest grades and only fifty of the fourteen hundred students are included among the members.

New Haven.—Two thousand Yale students gathered at the station here today and gave Captain Jordan and his football squad a rousing send off when they departed for Trenton N. J. Despite faculty orders not to leave until tonight, hundreds of Yale rooters started their exits last night.

STEWART MAKES THE FAST EM-ROE SQUAD

Star of Last Year's High School Basketball Team Stated For Forward With Independents

TO OPEN AT SHELBYVILLE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17.—The Em-Roe basket ball squad, after three weeks of practice has been reduced to seven players and this number will start Dec. 1. Bassett, who has been the fastest of the Em-Roe players for several seasons has won a forward position again and with him will be Stewart, star of the Rushville quintet last year, and Montgomery, who starred with the Lizton team that won the state independent tourney last spring.

Hite, ex-Martinsville high school player has clinched the center position through his good jumping at the tipoff and his passing. He was given a place on the all-star team at the Tri-State high school tournament at Cincinnati, last season. The guards will be O. Behrent, Everett Babb and Marty Frankfort, Em-Roe veterans.

The Em-Roes will open their road schedule at Shelbyville, Dec. 1, and will play Franklin college here Dec. 12, in their first home game. A game with Wabash is in prospect for Dec. 16, here and two home games will be played in January, with the New York Nationals and the Hewitt Rubber Company quintet. These four games are all that will be played in January, with the New York Nationals and the Hewitt Rubber Company quintet. These four games are all that will be played here this season, according to present plans of Manager Callahan.

Chicago, Gambling Mad, Is The Monte Carlo Of Western World

Chicago, Nov. 17.—(United Press)—Chicago is the Monte Carlo of the western world.

Gambling flourishes in nearly every section of the city—apparently ignoring the anti-gambling laws.

The most picturesque scenes of the old west and the Yukon—as they are read about in books—are reenacted here nightly.

Proprietors of gambling houses are reaping enormous profits, and they entertain jovially for their game-hungry clients.

The famous blackbelt on the South side is sprinkled with gambling dens, famed for their "crap" tables.

The select places, reputed hangouts for gamblers, con men and vice leaders are jammed with visitors nightly.

A printed card distributed carelessly, is a ticket of admission. An armed look-out stands guard at the double-doored entrance, peering through a porthole. A signal from without, a flash of his card, and the visitor is admitted to the second door.

Here he is "frisked" thoroughly by a colored attendant for firearms. Revolvers are "checked" at the door and returned as the "guest" leaves.

Disarmed, the door swings open the porters hurl him a good-luck" and he is admitted.

The large room is dense with smoke and crowded. Whites and blacks mingle freely, in a great mob, betting widely on each throw of the spotted cubes on huge plush-covered tables.

Skilled cashiers, announcers and decoys, are at each table. Oily-voiced croupiers urge the better on: "Let's gamble boys—pay the field—he wins—he loses—double up and beat the game—the more you bet the more you win."

Gambling, too now flourishes on Chicago's west side. Rows of saloons technically dry, are anterooms to gambling parlors in back or upstairs.

Here are rows of gambling tables—roulette, black-jack, poker, faro and fan-tan.

Arthur Burrage Farwell, president of the Chicago Law and Order league declared it was useless to wage war on the gamblers.

"I have reported these places repeatedly to the authorities. I have taken the matter to the mayor the chief of police and the state's attorney's office," he said.

"As far as I can learn, no effort has been made to enforce the laws or to close up any of the gambling dens."
